Message from you local Inspector, Ed Brown

It's been an extremely busy Summer for us as North Norfolk tends to come alive with visitors flocking to the area to enjoy what we know is an outstanding place to live and work. As much as we welcome those visitors it does bring increased demands not least providing support for the large number of public events.

We continue to be one of the safest places in the country but policing in North Norfolk is about so much more than crime. Our officers spend many hours looking for missing people, dealing with road traffic incidents and providing support for vulnerable people with challenging mental health issues. If all we had to deal with was crime our work would be so much more straightforward.

Communities continue to tell us that what they want to see is more visible policing across the area. Whilst more new bobbies may be on the way over the next 12 months we do have a really good team here in North Norfolk already and part of my role is getting them out and about into our community more and I shall be focussing on that again over the coming months. We can't be everywhere but we will be somewhere!

Over the last week, some areas in the district have seen an increase in thefts from vehicles. Whilst we are lucky enough to live in a safe area, we still recommend that unattended vehicles are kept locked and all valuables either removed or secured out of sight.

Remember the #9PMRoutine:

- Check your vehicles
- Shut your windows
- Lock your doors
- Check your outbuildings

We know that some criminals are opportunist's looking for a quick and easy win, by carrying out these daily checks you can reduce crime and protect your property.
